

Education Scholars Program

For Academic Leaders Departmental

Benefits of the Education Scholars Program

By supporting faculty to attend the ESP, Departments can benefit in the following ways:

- Developing scholarly activity in education
- Developing future education leaders for succession in your Department
- Developing a local & credible resource for faculty development in education
- Enhancing recruitment, recognition and retention of faculty and students in the Department
- Enhancing the ability of education faculty to get promoted
- Linking to a greater community of scholars in education beyond the Department
